

Medicare Child Dental Benefit Scheme –

Bulk billed dental treatment for kids + teenagers.

Hi, from West Preston Dental!

As of Jan 1 2014, the Federal Government introduced the new “Child Dental Benefit Scheme”.

Patients 2-17 years old from families that qualify for Family Tax Benefit Part A can get general treatment at our dental practice bulk billed through Medicare.

West Preston Dental is a registered Medicare practice, so this means that there are NO OUT OF POCKET FEES!

How to get treatment?

- Call our practice 94780119 to make an appointment.
- Please advise our reception that you are eligible for the medicare (child dental benefit) scheme, we will need your child’s medicare number to make the appointment.
- Come in for treatment, bring your medicare card, and we can bulk bill Medicare electronically. Alternatively, you can pay for treatment then take receipt to claim yourself at Medicare.
