VOLUME 2 ISSUE 1 December 2018

Toolbox meeting 7th November. 16 members in attendance.

Resignation letter from President Malcolm Roberts effective 24th November 2018 presented. A vote of thanks to Malcolm for his term as president.

Ken G indicated that we all need to check if our vehicles are part of the airbag recall as the take-up is very low. Ken will supply the website where to look to see if your vehicle is on the list for replacement.

Tool Down Day 21st November President Malcolm in the chair, 14 members present. The Shed can purchase open front shirts at a cost of $33.00. See the noticeboard for details or contact the Secretary should you wish to order one.

Tools Down Day is take-up of the BBQ after changed? A suggestion was over lunch. Also suggested 'freebie' supplied by the decision will be made later by members.

NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2018

To the Editor

Shedders were greatly saddened with the passing of our foundation member Kevin Dalziel.

The number of our members paying their last respects at Kevin's funeral provided testament to how highly he was regarded by us all.

During the church service reference was made by his family to how much he valued his membership of the Whyalla Men's Shed and the comfort and satisfaction he gained from his involvement during his later years.

The Men's Shed is a community serving organisation offering so many benefits to members of advanced age. Membership in our Whyalla Shed should be considered a privilege.

We will all miss Kevin but if his passing causes us to reflect on how we all came together as friends, to farewell a friend, we will appreciate even more the unique benefits membership of our shed offers.

Ken Godden.

Music maestro, Bob Kesby and his wife have moved to Port Augusta to be with their family. Good luck mate you will be missed.

Ideal Xmas gifts created in our very own Whyalla Men's Shed. Check out the range today.

NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2018

It's well known that ownership of a ute or van makes for a very popular owner. Malcolm's generous support of our shed by assisting with the moving of bulky, heavy items with his van is much appreciated. So, if you have ever pondered Malcolm's popularity, here's the answer.

The Committee and Members Of the Whyalla Men's Shed

Wish you and yours

A very merry Christmas and a Safe and Prosperous New Year.

Christmas in Australia is different to what you know,
we don't see any reindeer and for sure there is no snow,
No steaming Christmas pudding, or eggnog by the fire,
Too much of that hot stuff, makes us all perspire.

As I get older I realize:

1. I talk to myself, because sometimes I need expert advice.
2. Sometimes I roll my eyes outloud.
3. I don't need anger management, I need people to stop pissing me off.
4. My people skills are just fine. It's my tolerance of idiots that needs work.
5. The biggest lie I tell myself is, "I don't need to write that down, I'll remember it."
6. When I was a child I thought naptime was punishment. Now it's like a mini-vacation.
7. The day the world runs out of wine is just too terrible to think about.
8. Even duct tape can't fix stupid, but it can muffle the sound.
9. Wouldn't it be great if we could put ourselves in the dryer for 10 minutes; come out wrinkle-free and three sizes smaller?
10. "Getting Lucky" means walking into a room and remembering why I'm there.

SHARE if you agree
