

Pennants

Men

Toowong's Div 2 pennant team notched its fifth win in six rounds with a hard-fought 56-51 away defeat of St Lucia to complete the double against our neighbouring club.

But the news was not so good at home where our Div 4 outfit was outclassed 79-45 by leading team Grange.

Doug Pannell's team of David Allen, Des Denino and John Arrowsmith led the way at St Lucia with a 23-18 victory which included a vital four shots on the second last end.

Scott Gregory, coming to the rescue in the absence of Robbie Rimes, skipped Lloyd Lyndon, Ward Kenny and Jim Adams home 17-16, while Chris Hassen's team of Peter Jordan, Alistair McKay and Piotr Malicki was pipped 17-16.

Ted Laundon's team, with popular, globetrotting greenkeeper Tony Dobinson making his pennants debut for the Terriers, did best of the teams at Toowong with a five-shot loss (16-21).

It was a tough afternoon for the other two sides against solid opposition, with Dave Gilbert beaten 27-16 and Murdoch McDonald 31-13.
