PREMIER SEVENS

Singles bolover, comeback kings win

PIOTR Malicki – take a bow.

Piotr caused a singles bolover as Toowong upset section leaders Mudgeeraba 2-1 in Premier Sevens Division 1. And Doug Pannell and John Arrowsmith proved themselves the comeback kings.

Toowong Terriers almost pulled off a complete sweep at the weekend, beating Ferny Grove 3-1 in the Gow Cup and Graceville 2-1 in the Graceville 8s.

But unfortunately, our Div 5 Premier Sevens outfit was beaten 2-1 by Springwood at Capalaba.

Piotr beat vastly experienced Mudgeeraba bowler Alan Law 31-27 in a performance he rated as possibly his best ever. It gave Toowong the perfect start in the absence of Robbie Rimes and John and Doug put the icing on the cake with a fighting 26-25 victory. It came after they dropped two fives in a row and trailed 15-5. What a comeback!

Toowong came desperately close to winning 3-0 with Chris Hassen's fours team being pipped 15-14.

In Div 5 at Capalaba on Sunday, Ted Laundon's fours team of Simon Adams, Gabrielle Evans and David Gilbert were never headed in winning 26-12, but Toowong suffered tight losses in the singles and pairs.

Peter Longland went down 31-26 in the singles and late pairs replacements Sue Goode and David Falkenmire finishing full of runnings to be pipped 23-22.

The following players have been picked to represent Toowong this weekend, as follows:
Please note that the Skip in the teams events are named first. All Games are drawn for Saturday.

ALEX GOW CUP

Toowong opened their first foray into this competition with a 3-1 away defeat of Ferny Grove featuring wins in both triples and one of the pairs.

Chris Thomson skipped Peter Jordan and Tim Salway to a comprehensive 32-7 victory, while Mark Israel, Sue Goode and David Falkenmire fought back from a slow start for a comfortable 27-14 win.

Pauline Barton and Brian Vandersee combined for a solid 26-22 win but Alicja Malicka and Pam Salway went down 28-17 after giving too much start away early.

This Saturday's match is at home against Grange at 10 am.

GRACEVILLE EIGHTS

Murdoch McDonald skipped Rob Malcolm and Peter Wilce home 33-13 and Harriet Posner's team of Gayleen Trevaskis and Doug Buchbach posted a solid 27-19 victory. Doug deserves a special mention for making the trip from Mooloolaba to help the club out.

Col Gray and Carol Hurst ran into a couple of ladies who were on fire throughout for a 33-13 scoreline.
