PREMIER SEVENS

Terriers triumphant

THE Toowong Terriers are riding high after a winning Premier Sevens double at home featuring a 3-0 result in Division 5.

Our Div 1 team made it three wins on the trot with a 2-1 defeat of previously unbeaten Darra Cementco.

The Div 5 side toppled Section leaders Logan City in impressive fashion, Peter Longland leading the way with a fighting 31-26 singles victory.

Ted Laundon, who is arguably playing the best bowls of his life, skipped David Gilbert, Gabrielle Evans and Brian Vandersee to a commanding 25-16 win.

And Jim Pope and Bill Mills clicked into action with a comprehensive 27-12 pairs victory.

John Arrowsmith and Doug Pannell continued their great pairs form in Div 1 with a 25-13 eclipse of Darra’s previously unbeaten Alan Rigney and Helen Wood-Bradley.

The inclusion of Robbie Rimes to skip the fours team of Ward Kenny, Jim Adams and Chris Hassen reaped a breakthrough 22-13 win in this discipline.

Piotr Malicki, the previous week's singles hero, played some great bowls but the experience of renowned singles exponent Kevin Mallory shone through in a 31-21 win for Darra.

Toowong completes the first round this weekend away to Helensvale in Div 1 and at home to Coolangatta in Div 5.

Toowong drew on rinks (2-2) but were beaten 91-83 by Grange.

The new pairing of Peter Jordan and Alicja Malicka stormed to a 33-17 win and triples trio Mark Israel, Sue Goode and David Falkenmire scraped home 20-18 after leading 13-3.

The other pairs and triples rinks resulted in 29-20 and 27-10 losses.

A second rink win looked possible with Col Gray and Carol Hurst displaying great pairs form, but unfortunately they were pipped at the post 21-20.

Murdoch McDonald's triples team of Rob Malcolm and Peter Wilce had a tough afternoon in going down 43-16 but they are sure to bounce back this weekend against Jindalee.
