PREMIER SEVENS

Piotr the real deal

The continued emergence of Piotr Malicki as a genuine singles specialist shone through in Toowong's 2-1 home win over Enoggera in Premier Sevens Division 1.

It was the only weekend success for the Terriers from our four representative teams, with the Div 5 side suffering another heartbreaking loss at Beaudesert.

Piotr, thrust into the important singles slot when Robbie Rimes was unavailable, has made a real fist of it with three wins from four outings. His 31-28 win over Enoggera's John Cuttcliff was another classy effort highlighted by his ability to extract himself from difficult situations. At 28-all, Piotr was able to finish the match off in style with a three and it set the Terriers up for a 3-0 win.

Robbie's fours were coasting and Doug and John appeared to have the pairs match against two young brothers in hand when leading 24-17. But the teenagers Carl and Brad Fleger, (at 13 and 14 years of age), finished full of running to overtake the well-performed Toowong pair 26-24.

Meanwhile, Robbie skipped Chris Hassen, Alistair McKay and Matt Barton to a comfortable 21-10 win over Ed Richardson's outfit.

Toowong (8) is equal second with Moorooka on the Section 4 ladder behind Helensvale (9).

At Beaudesert, Peter Longland also continued his good singles form with a 31-28 win. But both the pairs and fours were beaten in nailbiters, with Ted Laundon's rink of David Gilbert, Gabrielle Evans and Brian Vandersee pipped 19-18 after an extra end was required to break a deadlock.

Jim Pope and Bill Mills, after a last-end loss the previous week against Coolangatta, were beaten 18-17 in another heartstopper.

Our Fives deserve a win after their efforts over the past two weeks and get your bets on for them to make amends at home against Algester this weekend.

They are fourth on their Section ladder and need three wins from the last four games to be a chance of qualifying for the finals.

ALEX GOW CUP

This was another heartbreaker for the Terriers, two rinks each at home against Everton Park but beaten overall by one shot, 83-82.

Pauline and Pam did their bit with a dominant 27-18 pairs win and Simon Adams skipped in-form pair Mark Israel and Sue Goode to a clear-cut 25-18 win.

But Alicja and DF, after leading 14-11, lost their way to go down 25-18 and Thommo's triples team fell 23-13.

Toowong faces another home match this Saturday against Samford A.

GRACEVILLE EIGHTS

A 2-1 home loss against Graceville Cockatoos featured an eye-catching 24-16 pairs win by Leigh Chamberlain and Carol Hurst, who was back to her winning B grade singles form.

Harriet's triples team of Gayleen and Mike (Gilmour) fought tooth and nail in going down 24-22 to a side that included Jack McLaughlin celebrating his 87th birthday. Fittingly for former state cricketer and baseballer Jack, he delivered the winning bowl on the last end.

Our other triples team found the going tough in slipping to a 36-10 loss.

This weekend's home match against Goodna is the last before the finals series takes place at Graceville over three Saturdays.

Only five of the six teams will figure in the finals and a loss to top team Goodna could mean Toowong missing out.

Team for this week is :

Super 8's Vs Goodna at Toowong commencing 10.00 am

C. Hurst; Leigh Chamberlain
H. Posner; M. Gilmour; G. Trevaskis
D. Buchbach; P. Wilce; M. McDonald
Reserve : R. Malcolm ; L. Chamberlain
