DOUG PANNELL

Doug was Toowong's only representative in the Brisbane District team for the Poinsettia Cup series against Brisbane North, Gateway and Cunningham at Cleveland last Sunday.

He skipped one of the four rinks, notching a win against Brisbane North and two close losses. Gateway won the Poinsettia Cup.

Results

Four wins equals big grins

WINNERS are grinners, especially when a clean sweep leaves so many Toowong Terriers with huge grins.

Our Super Eights team set the standard for the day by upsetting Graceville Cockatoos 2-1 on a slow track at Graceville and will now meet Jindalee in a semi-final on Saturday.

The Gow Cup crew chimed in with a huge win over Samford B on the synthetic surface at Samford.

Meanwhile, Toowong's Premier Sevens teams were both involved in tough contests at home.

The Div 1s emerged with a 2-1 defeat of Mudgeeraba that featured a remarkable singles win by Piotr, and the Div 5s downed Springwood for their second 3-0 result on the trot with Peter Longland making it five singles wins in a row.

A big thanks to Lloyd Lyndon for both umpiring and marking.

Premier Sevens

Piotr the Polish Wizard was ahead only once in an incredible comeback – when he scored two on the last end for a 31-30 win over Pete Horne.

Horne had a good lead for most of the game, including 23-13, and looked to be in control.

But Piotr refused to yield and kept pegging his opponent back, scoring a crucial four to draw level at 29-29.

Horne took a 30-29 lead but Piotr had the last say with brilliant draw bowls and was able to notch his fifth win from six games.

John and Doug returned to their best with an easy 25-17 pairs win but the fours went down 23-8 much to the disappointment of skip Robbie Rimes.

In the Div 5 singles contest, Peter was in trouble at times but found the solution when he peeled off eight ends in a row in registering a comfortable 31-22 win.

Ted Laundon's fours crew continued to operate like a well-oiled machine and from 15-all were able to get home 20-15.

The pairs was never in doubt with the Pope and "Tiger" Mills continuing their blossoming association by romping in 31-8.

Alex Gow Cup

Our gallant girls showed the way in a 115-80 eclipse of Samford B with two thumping rink wins.

Pam and Pauline showed they are not to be messed with on carpet by winning 39-9 and Sue celebrated her elevation to skip by mastering the carpet in guiding Mark "Don't Pick Me" Israel and secret weapon Mike Murphy to a 40-15 runaway.

David Allen and Alicja put up a good pairs fight (16-22) and Thommo's triples rink was out of luck again (20-34).

This was a brilliant result considering the lack of experience on the quick carpet surface and the absence of several regular members of the team, plus the accidental omission of Tim Salway.

Toowong's last of seven games is at Ashgrove on Saturday and a win could see them qualify for the top-two final.

Graceville 8's

This was a terrific win by a reshuffled team in the absence of Mike Gilmour and with Leigh Chamberlain nursing a foot ailment.

Gayleen was switched to pairs with Carol and the diminutive duo combined perfectly to beat two seasoned old-stagers, including Jack McLaughlin, 20-12.

The triples trio of Peter, Doug and Murdoch again struck gold with an all-the-way 32-12 victory, while Harriet battled hard with Leigh and Les to hold their opponents to 16-30.

Team captain Harriet thanked Mary, Pauline, Ward, John and David for their kind support.

The Terriers are on a winning roll in this series and must be given a good chance of toppling Jindalee after being beaten by the Jaguars in the prelim rounds.
