Toowong v Coolangatta in playoffs

(a big cheer squad needed at Booval Swifts on Sunday)

IT was a losing weekend for Toowong but the good news is that our Division 5 Premier Sevens team is among 16 qualifiers for the playoffs.

The Terriers finished second behind Coolangatta in their Section by winning five of 10 matches and will now play Coolangatta at Booval Swifts on Sunday at 9.15 am for a quarter-final berth.

Our Div 1 team also completed the preliminary rounds with five wins but missed out on qualifying.

In last-round matches, the 1s were beaten 2-1 at home by leading team Helensvale and the 5s lost 2-1 at Coolangatta.

John Arrowsmith, playing singles for the first time this season, demolished his Helensvale opponent 31-10 in an exceptional display of draw bowls.

The reshuffled pairs and fours teams went down 25-12 and 21-16 respectively. Thanks to Sue for umpiring.

At Coolangatta, another win by Ted Laundon's fours team (20-19) was the highlight.

In-form pair Jim Pope and Bill Mills were beaten 26-12 and singles ace Peter Longland suffered his biggest loss (31-17) in what has been a very productive season.

The Toowong team has a great chance of turning the tables on Coolangatta and advancing further in this tough competition which culminates with the finals at Mermaid Beach on the weekend of April 8-9.

SUPER EIGHTS

It was a sad ending for Toowong, beaten 3-0 by Graceville at Graceville in a playoff for third and fourth positions. Goodna beat Jindalee in the final.

But nothing should distract from Toowong's good previous performances in this series which was of an even higher standard this year.

Our triples teams were beaten 28-22 and 29-18, and the pairs lost 22-15 to finish the season.

Three cheers for HARRIERS HORNETS.

EIGHT OF THE BEST

Bowlers can spend a lifetime without scoring an eight on an end in either pairs or fours.

Toowong rookie Jack Hancock, taking a break from behind the bar, achieved the rare feat with John Arrowsmith in social pairs last week.

They scored eight on the second end against Les Chamberlain and David Allen after dropping three on the first end.

Incredibly, Jack and John still found themselves trailing 10-8 after six ends but won four of the last five ends for a narrow 14-11 victory.

DISTRICT MEN'S O-60 PAIRS

Doug P and David F played one end of their semi-final against a Ferny Grove team at Windsor on Sunday before being washed out. The semis have been rescheduled for Wednesday, March 29.

For those of you interested in the finals result of the Alex Gow Cup here's the table. Samford A won on all rinks defeating Grange.
