

Premier Sevens.

A 2-1 home win over Victoria Point in Div 1 kept Toowong's finals hopes alive and although beaten 2-1 on the carpet at Springwood the Div 5 Blues are still riding high.

Twist and Keighley returned to form with a 28-8 pairs win at Toowong and Pannell remained unbeaten in four matches with a dominant 35-13 fours win.

Rimes, who swapped spots with Arrowsmith, suffered a rare singles loss 31-22. If they can win their last two games v Mudgeeraba and Darra the 1s can make the semis.

Jim Adams fours outfit held the fort at Springwood, holding on 19-17 after leading 11-2. Alicja and Pam tasted defeat for the first time in six matches and Peter Longland went close in a 31-26 singles loss.

The Blues remain at the top of the ladder with Helensvale on 22 points.

The Over-60s and Div 5 Reds both suffered 3-0 defeats at Ferny Grove and Toowong respectively.

Denino and Vandersee led 18-10 at Ferny before losing 23-18 while the fours held a great shot for a 16-all draw on the last end only to see the opposing skip remove it for three shots. The 60s lost Pannell & Richardson, replaced by Speare, who played singles, and McDonald.

Lyndon and Pope were the victims of another close pairs loss at Toowong (23-19) while the fours and singles went down.
