MONDAY NIGHT MIXED PENNANTS:

Last night was the last fixture game for this comp and even though Toowong won 2 rinks against a strong Enoggera team, the difference didn't make up for the loss on the third. The Arrowsmith and Evans teams were victorious but team Salway couldn't hold off the Enoggera team. That means no finals for us. Congratulations to all who committed to the comp and played in what may have been the last mixed night pennants to be held.

CHAMPIONSHIPS:

Alicja Malicka confirmed her rapid improvement by reaching the final of the B grade open singles. Alicja's steady left-handed draw bowls produced something of an upset 25-20 win over Peter Longland and she now meets Chris Thomson in an eagerly awaited final.

Husband Piotr Malicki reached the triples final on a nearby rink, leading as solidly as ever for Jeff Twist and John Arrowsmith in a 30-14 win over Doug Pannell's rookies Mike Murphy and Tim Salway who were far from disgraced.

There was a boilover in the other semi with reluctant participant Des Denino skipping Les Chamberlain and Mike Gilmour to a comfortable 25-14 defeat of sizzling hot favourites Des Baglin, Robbie Rimes and John McConnachy, subbing for Chris Thomson.

The selectors were responsible for entering Denino's team and although he was far from enthusiastic, he now finds himself in the final and although at long odds is such a gritty competitor that another upset is not entirely out of the question.
