

BUSINESS END OF THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Newcomer Scott Gregory and comeback king Alan Keighley are the latest quarter-finalists in the men's singles championship.

Scott followed up his win over Chris Hassen with another solid performance to beat Jim Adams 25-14. He now meets an in-form Lloyd Lyndon for a semi-final berth.

Alan sneaked home 25-23 over Dave Falkenmire, scoring three and one on the last two ends to clinch a thriller. He now faces titleholder John Arrowsmith and could prove a tough hurdle to overcome.

Alan, former Sunnybank and Cunningham district singles champion, had an outstanding singles record before giving the game away for 15 years.

Another eagerly awaited quarter-final pits pairs teammates Rob Rimes and Des Baglin against each other. Robbie has to be favourite but Des is a talented draw player in good touch.

Singles sad-sacks Jovial Jim and DF were cheered up by a rollicking 25-6 win over Alistair McKay and Des Denino in the first round of the pairs championship.

Congrats to President Pam on reaching the women's singles final and commiserations to titleholder Gabrielle Evans on forfeiting her match against Leigh Chamberlain through illness.
