Darlington Arts Festival

DAF TURNS 50

THE DARLINGTON ARTS FESTIVAL turns fifty this year. The Darlington Theatre Players were heavily involved with the organisation and running in the early years of the Festival and although our involvement has lessened over the years the Marloo Theatre Devonshire Teas has been a major part of the attractions of the Festival.

In the last while that has been run by Marjorie (Cheesecake) De Caux and Richard Coleman and has raised a great deal of money for the DTP, as well as providing great publicity for the club and its shows.

Now it's your chance to help and get involved. The commitment isn't heavy - a couple of hours on the Saturday or Sunday - the 2nd and 3rd of November.

The more helpers we have, the less time requirement from each. If you can help, even for a short while, please ring Marjorie or Richard on 9299 6243.

As for promoting our panto Cinderella we will be having a Prince Charming and two attendant Princesses wandering around the Festival with a glass slipper for ladies to try on. If it fits they get a small token but whether it fits or not they get to enter into the draw for two tickets to Cinderella.

Club Nights

OUR MOST RECENT CLUB event, the performance by the Perth Band was poorly attended by the membership in general despite the fact that the actual performance was splendid with lots of show tunes, humour and a recitation of Albert and The Lion.

This lack of attendance was also true of the Ballet and it leads us to the assumption that we are not offering the membership what they want.

Please let us know what you would like to see at Club events by e-mailing douglassb@iinet.net.au. For example, Gail Palmer has suggested a wine and cheese tasting night - but we're happy to consider any suggestions.

We look forward to getting yours.

Awards Night

YOU'RE INVITED

THE PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE of the Darlington Theatre Players Inc are pleased to invite you to attend the annual Awards Night at Marloo Theatre on Saturday the 14th December.

The Awards Night is being done slightly differently this year. There will be a buffet dinner catered by Alfreds All Suburbs Catering who catered the last two year's dinners. This will be served in the BBQ area but we'll eat at tables and chairs arranged on the stage.

Main course will be followed by a sweet course cooked by our own Marjorie De Caux and then the awards will be presented. This year the presenter will be Narelle Belle, a professional entertainer whom you seriously do not want to miss.

The DTP subsidise this annual event so the cost to members is only $20 a head. Places are limited to eighty, and some tickets have already been taken so that you should not delay.

To place your booking ring Gwyne on 9255 1783 or email Douglas on douglassb@iinet.net.au.

CINDERELLA

OF ALL THE THINGS that England has given the world – Imperialism, Devonshire Teas, Cucumber sandwiches and Fish and Chips – almost certainly the one which has brought the most pleasure is the English Pantomime.

The 'Principal Boy' is traditionally played by a gorgeous young girl in breeches, the 'dame' is most frequently a man in drag and lots of audience participation in the form of 'He's behind you!', 'Oh, yes it is' and 'Oh, no it's not'.

It is in this spirit that Marloo Theatre is presenting Cinderella as a full traditional English pantomime, complete with two dames (Joe Isaia and Clayton Mitchell) a gorgeous lead playing Cinders – the very lovely and talented Gemma Sharpe and mice, Buttons, Baron Hardup, Prince and King.

The Prince must marry (otherwise his stipend will be cut off) and holds a ball to choose a bride. Cinderella is banned by her ugly sisters and cruel stepmother, but her fairy godmother ensures a happy ending. All singing, all dancing and great fun for all the family.

Youth Theatre

HOLIDAY CLASSES

THE DARLINGTON THEATRE PLAYERS are thrilled to announce the resumption of the Youth Theatre in January of 2014.

Multi-award winning actors and directors Gail Palmer and Neroli Burton will jointly be presenting a series of workshops for youths aged ten to sixteen covering such topics as script writing, character development, stage craft, movement, make-up and the like.

The classes will take place during the January 2014 holidays and will take the form of a inclusive talk on a topic, followed by work-shopping a self-devised one act play as relating to that topic and at the end of the series of classes the play will be presented to the membership at a Club Night.

Numbers are limited to twenty students, so book early. Tickets cost only $20 a head.

If you are interested in either helping or attending, can you please express your interest to Gail Palmer on 9252 0665 or gvpalmer@myacn.net.au.

This intriguing, multi-layered and witty thriller is full of unexpected twists. A Russian doll of a play, it moves from a seemingly innocuous domestic play reading, through a murder mystery in the classic style, to a final terrifying and violent climax.

It was first produced at the Edinburgh Festival in 2004 and subsequently presented at the Jermyn Street Theatre, London.

NOTICES

HELP WANTED

We all enjoy a drink at the bar before the show and a nice hot cup of tea or coffee in the interval. However, in order to enjoy this, it means that someone has to be there to open up, make up and clean up afterwards.

So, both the Bar Manager and Front of House managers are looking for volunteers so that the load doesn't all fall onto the same band every show. With Cinderella coming up the shortage is becoming acute. The more volunteers we have the fewer nights each has to work.

If you think you might like to help, please ring the Production Manager, Douglas Sutherland-Bruce 6296 5161 or speak to someone at the bar or behind the FOH counter next time you're in the theatre.

IN LINE WITH THE DTP's desire to reduce our carbon footprint as far as possible. It is our desire to replace wherever possible the printed newsletter with an electronic one. This edition will be sent via e-mail. If you require a hard copy advise the editor on douglassb@inet.net.au.
