Darlington Arts Festival

CINDERELLA, SCONES AND SHOES

THE DARLINGTON THEATRE PLAYERS has a long history with the Darlington Arts Festival.

In 1961 artist Guy Grey Smith was burning off at the back of his Darlington studio and the fire got out of control. The Darlington Volunteer Fire Brigade saved his home and studio so, as a 'thank you' and fundraiser he organised an exhibition of his and other local artists' work.

The Darlington Arts Festival was born two years later when Robin Juniper announced that Helena School would sponsor an Arts and Crafts show to raise funds for a local kindergarten.

Since then the annual event, which sees thousands of fans head for the hills has grown steadily and the DTP have been there selling Devonshire Cream Teas most of the time.

Over the years the free festival has grown to embrace much more than art, with entertainment, workshops, fun, food and wine available on a transformed Darlington Oval, adjacent to the Hall. Young and old will be invited to join in such games as hopscotch, Maypole dancing, cat's cradles and knuckle bones.

Most recently it has been Marjorie De Caux organising and baking those scones not supplied elsewhere. This year for example Marjorie baked 864 scones, made the jam that was spread on them and was fortunate that someone else was able to milk the cows that provided the glorious thick cream.

Marjorie and Richard together with their team raised well over $2000 for the theatre and made a welcome return after a couple of years break. Greg and Liz Rusha were largely instrumental in making the return possible and were a great liaison with the DAF Committee.

As well as selling scones, tea and coffee the Festival is an opportunity to promote the theatre in general and the end of year production in particular.

This year with our panto Cinderella it was easy to attract attention. Alex Sutton and Odette Vonk took a glass slipper around for ladies of all ages to try on. Each one who did had their name go into the raffle for double passes.

In addition, through the cool Prince (in sunnies) and beautiful Princess, we farmed contact details so that we can send out information of upcoming productions and also handed out a large number of DL flyers - both for Cinderella and the upcoming Shakespeare Birthday Festival season that takes place next April from the 1st to the 26th.

Our thanks to Marjorie de Caux and Richard Coleman for organising this marvelous fund and awareness raiser.

Fundraising

DAF DEVONSHIRE TEAS

THE FIRST WEEK OF November has been and gone, but once more, Darlington Theatre Players took over the verandah of Darlington Hall to feed the hoards with scones, jam and cream and gallons of tea and coffee. A marvelous team of workers kept the urns on the boil, the festival goers fed and the money coming in.

Grateful thanks to the relatively small band of helpers this year, and particularly to James Sutherland-Bruce who not only brought along two of his Uni friends to fill in some rather worrying gaps in the Roster, but also acted as the photographer for the day and spent most of the weekend working at our stall.

To all who helped – hope you had a great time, and trust that we haven't scared you off for next year. Thank you so much for putting aside your precious free time to help with this important fund-raising and Theatre promotion event.

Special thanks to Leslie Balinski who drove up from Katanning to join in the fun, and to Trevor for spending time interleaving plates with serviettes.

With the Cinderella theme in full swing, thanks go to Alex Sutton and Odette Vonk, who spent a number of hours parading round the oval, in Prince and Princess costumes, inviting festival-goers to try on our glass slipper and enter a competition to win a double pass to the show. The winners were very excited and have already booked and seen the show.

Don't forget to mark the first weekend in November next year on your calendar, and hope to see your hand up to help in 2014. Again, thanks to the marvelous team of helpers.

Youth Theatre

HOLIDAY CLASSES

THE DARLINGTON THEATRE PLAYERS are thrilled to announce the resumption of the Youth Theatre in January of 2014.

Multi-award winning actors and directors Gail Palmer and Neroli Burton will jointly be presenting a series of workshops for youths aged ten to sixteen covering such topics as script writing, character development, stage craft, movement, make-up and the like.

The classes will take place during the January 2014 holidays and will take the form of a inclusive talk on a topic, followed by work-shopping a self-devised one act play as relating to that topic and at the end of the series of classes the play will be presented to the membership at a Club Night.

Numbers are limited to twenty students, so book early. Tickets cost only $20 a head.

If you are interested in either helping or attending, can you please express your interest to Gail Palmer on 9252 0665 or gvpalmer@myacn.net.au.

Awards Night

YOU'RE INVITED

THE PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE of the Darlington Theatre Players Inc are pleased to invite you to attend the annual Awards Night at Marloo Theatre on Saturday the 14th December.

The Awards Night is being done slightly differently this year. There will be a buffet dinner catered by Alfreds All Suburbs Catering who catered the last two year's dinners. This will be served buffet style and eaten on the stage.

Main course will be followed by a sweet course cooked by our own Marjorie De Caux and then the awards will be presented. This year the presenter will be Narelle Belle, a professional entertainer whom you seriously do not want to miss.

The DTP subsidise this annual event so the cost to members is only $20 a head. Places are limited to eighty, and some tickets have already been taken so that you should not delay.

To place your booking ring Gwyne on 9255 1783 or email Douglas on douglassb@iinet.net.au.

Help us to keep our records up to date so we can keep you up to date with what is happening at Marloo.

Please send your contact details to us either by email or by post.

Garrick Theatre Presents

Brilliant Lies

by David Williamson

Directed by Dale James

Garrick Theatre is on the hunt for actors for its first season of 2014 and is holding auditions from 10am, December 8.

Williamson is known for his extensive range of work including Don's Party, The Club, Travelling North and Money and Friends and the screenplays Gallipoli, The Year of Living Dangerously, Phar Lap and Balibo.

Brilliant Lies is described as a serious comedy about sexual harassment in the workplace, focusing on political correctness and changing social values.

It was made into a 1996 film with Anthony LaPaglia, Gia and Zoe Carides and Ray Barrett.

A range of males and females, aged from their 20s to mid-50s, are required:

Marion, official commission mediator, age 30s-40s.

Suzy, a young ambitious career woman (arty in appearance), in her 20s.

Vince, owner of the business where Suzy works, aged 45-plus.

Gary, Suzy's manager, aged 40-plus.

Katy, Suzy's sister, in her late 20s/early 30s.

Brian, Suzy's father, aged 50-plus.

Paul, Suzy's older brother, in his 30s.

Performance dates for the show are January 30 to February 15. For more details, call Dale James on 0407 426 957 or email dalejames911@hotmail.com.

Garrick Theatre is at 16 Meadow Street, Guildford, opposite the Stirling Arms Hotel and Guildford Town Hall.

NOTICES

HELP WANTED

We all enjoy a drink at the bar before the show and a nice hot cup of tea or coffee in the interval. However, in order to enjoy this, it means that someone has to be there to open up, make up and clean up afterwards.

So, both the Bar Manager and Front of House managers are looking for volunteers so that the load doesn't all fall onto the same band every show. With Cinderella coming up the shortage is becoming acute. The more volunteers we have the fewer nights each has to work.

If you think you might like to help, please ring the Production Manager, Douglas Sutherland-Bruce 6296 5161 or speak to someone at the bar or behind the FOH counter next time you're in the theatre.

IN LINE WITH THE DTP's desire to reduce our carbon footprint as far as possible. It is our desire to replace wherever possible the printed newsletter with an electronic one. This edition will be sent via e-mail. If you require a hard copy advise the editor on douglassb@inet.net.au.
