McGuigan Wines

McGuigan Wines as we know it now was started by Brian McGuigan and wife Fay. Younger brother Neil McGuigan brought his winemaking talents to the winery. Sharing in a love of good wine, passion, dedication and an unwavering commitment to quality wine, the trio are the driving force behind McGuigan Wines. Today McGuigan Wines are proud to say they're one of the most awarded wineries in the world.

They've come a long way from their humble beginnings in the Hunter Valley, but remain true to their winemaking heritage. To be the only winery in the world to have won 'world's best winemaker' three times is a testament to their commitment to quality.

Hungerford Hill

Established in 1967, Hungerford Hill is a boutique estate in the Hunter Valley. Australia's oldest wine region.

For over a decade, the Kirby family has worked tirelessly to build on the winery's proud reputation for distinguished wines and to create a memorable cellar door experience. Guided by accomplished Winemaker Adrian Lockhart, Hungerford Hill's able team produce authentic wines, packed with character and interest, with a focus on New South Wales' cool climate regions. Hungerford Hill's winery is a landmark of the Hunter Valley region, with its unique barrel-shaped tasting room and underground working cellar. Awarded Cellar Door of the Year.

Drayton's Family Wines

Established in 1853, Drayton's are one of the Hunter Valley's pioneering winemaking families and it is one of the few companies that are still family owned and operated. The Drayton family is very proud of its history over six generations and the part it has played in the development of the region that is now known as "Hunter Valley Wine Country".

The Hunter Olive & Gourmet Food Centre

Launched in late 2003 to integrate their love for food & wine as well as to showcase some of the finest gourmet foods produced in the Hunter Valley.

Displaying a range of over 400 locally made products, of which up to 60 are on tasting at any one time, from local cottage industry producers not large enough to support a retail outlet. Currently retails a selection of olives, extra virgin olive oil, jams, preserves, conserves, mustard, oil dippers, vinegars, chutneys, dukkah & the largest range of herbs & spices in the valley.

All Wine Tasting Fees & Lunch are included. Wine tastings total approximately 6 to 8 standard drinks throughout the Day.

Wine Tasting only available to passengers 18 years old or over. RSA Regulations apply. ID must be produced on demand to be served Alcohol.
