AMAZING GLEDSDWOOD HOMESTEAD EXPERIENCE 30~44 People $75.00 Each

Departing your pick up location in our 5 Star Luxury Coach with sufficient time to be at Gledswood Homestead by 10:15am.

With all original buildings still standing, a trip to Gledswood Homestead & Winery is a step back in time and relaxing escape from busy modern life.

The Gledswood Estate dates back to 1810 and the property played a significant role in the establishment and development of the wool and wine industries in Australia. The Gledswood property was discovered because of an accident of the First Fleet, when in 1788, two bulls and four cows carried by the First Fleet escaped from the government farm. A convict hunter discovered the cattle 60 kilometres southwest of the government farm in 1795... welcome news as no fresh beef had been eaten in the colony for 7 years.

Enjoy morning tea served on arrival, followed by an Historic Homestead Tour. Today, the Gledswood Homestead & Winery tour provides a fascinating insight into the history of the property and where it fits into local history of the Macarthur region. The tour is lead by one of the local historians and you will hear tales of colourful characters such as squatters, rum traders, wool merchants and convicts.

For Lunch a country style roast will then be served in the Country Eating house, followed by dessert, tea & coffee.

We then conclude our Wild Colonial Day with by sampling some of Gledswood's wines and ports in the historical Coach House, with perhaps a purchase at the cellar door. Enjoy a leisurely Coach ride back to your pick up location.

Minimum of 30 people for this tour. Available Tuesday to Thursday only.
