

Your needs

Boussole Business Solutions was founded for the purpose of understanding your business needs, developing tailored solutions and accompanying you through the implementation phase.

The size of our business means that we remain agile and flexible to respond to, and comfortably accommodate, your changing business requirements.

About Boussole

boussole French /bu:sol/ n. an instrument for finding direction, having a magnetized needle which points to magnetic north.

Boussole is the French word for compass. We live our brand everyday as we provide solutions instrumental to your business direction. No assignment is too small nor too big for us. We will assist you with them all.

Our Commitment

We are committed to a high standard of service delivery. We are committed to the success of your business. We are committed to making life easier for you. We are committed to your priorities.

Dominique Autard Principal Consultant

Dominique is the founder and chief development officer of Boussole Business Solutions and is responsible for the company's service delivery across Strategic Development, Marketing Strategy, Customer Relationship Management, Process Improvement and Efficiency gains and Corporate Infrastructure.

As the principal consultant of the organisation, Dominique has over 2 decades of financial services experience, both nationally and internationally, covering life and general insurance, pension products as well as investment linked services.

Dominique's expertise revolves around large corporations including banks, insurance companies and their strategic development needs, marketing strategy, product development requirements, process design, project management and change management.

Dominique holds an MBA and a diploma of Financial Services. He is a Senior Associate of the Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance.

Sandy Autard Business Consultant

Sandy is the chief financial officer of Boussole Business Solutions, with responsibility for the company's capabilities and services across Analytics, Customer Relationship Management, Finance & Enterprise Performance, Operations, Sustainability, and Talent & Organization.

As the lead business consultant of the organisation, Sandy has 20 years hands on experience in financial services, information and technology, business administration in quantity surveying and construction, as well as international industrial procurement and operational management.

Sandy's key expertise revolves around SME's, business re-engineering, operational structure, training and management accounting.

Sandy has tertiary qualifications in Human Resource Management and a diploma in Biblical Studies and has had extensive training in accounting software packages.