Thank you for becoming a member of Fraser Coast Artslink under our volunteer Performers/ Stall holder's banner. These are the conditions of using our insurance to display your product or to perform.

- Stallholders must display a small sign acknowledging membership to Fraser Coast Artslink at each event. This sign is available from the Secretary.
- Stall holder's products must showcase own locally made or produced items.
- Stall holders must not be paid but showcase only. Stall holders may accept remuneration or donations for art items audience may wish to purchase on the day.
- You must be volunteer performers but may accept remuneration for costs incurred for performances.
- You are only covered for festivals and community activities if Fraser Coast Artslink has prior knowledge of this event and it is an Artslink approved event.
- Funding will only be allowed through Fraser Coast Artslink at the discretion of the Management Committee or if it is in the interests of the members as deemed appropriate by the Management Committee.
- Fraser Coast Artslink Secretary must be informed in writing of all events you intend to showcase at, a minimum of one week prior to the event, excluding Artslink events. If the Secretary does not receive notification for our data base you may not be covered.
- Performers and/or Stallholders membership must be financially current to obtain coverage.
- If a Performer/Stallholder requires a copy of the insurance, it will be forwarded to the event with acknowledgement of your current membership.

This insurance does not cover:

- Private performances including hotels, restaurants, weddings, birthday parties etc.
- An artist at a conflicting event without agreement from the Management Committee of Fraser Coast Artslink.
- Those who apply for funding either through their own ABN or another organisation.
